Getting the best for your child

From time to time you may have concerns about your child at school or the operations of the school. These concerns may grow into bigger issues if you don’t talk to the school staff about them.

Education Queensland is committed to ensuring that all parents have their concerns dealt with in a fair and equitable manner and there are processes and support structures in place to enable parents to work through any issues they may have.

Concerns should initially be directly to the teacher involved or lodged directly with Kym Stansbie as principal.

If the problem cannot be resolved within the school, you should contact the Toowoomba district office at 178 Hume St, 46169111.

All district offices also provide access to a community participation officer or an officer responsible for parent liaison.

As part of this process, Phil Cook, who is the Executive Director, will be notified and involved if needed.

Parents or caregivers may also wish to contact the Queensland Council of Parents and Citizens’ Associations (QCPCA) on 32623400 for help and support.

Both the QCPCA and District Office have access to the Office of State Schooling, which administers the operation of all Queensland State Schools, to further resolve issues if required.
